He attended the rural schools and in 1892 was graduated from the high school at Seaton. Following that came five years in Knox College at Galesburg, where he was in the preparatory course and in the regular college work through the junior year. In 1898 he took a course in Browns Business College, and then returned to the farm in Mercer County. About that time he formulated definite plans as to his future vocation, and in 1899 entered the University Medical College at Kansas City, Missouri. He remained a student there until graduating M. D. March 26, 1903. He remained in Kansas City for four months after graduation, and then went south to the State of Nuevo Leon in old Mexico and was employed in professional work there until March, 1904. At that date he came to Kansas, and after a visit to the old home in Mercer County located permanently at Leon. Since then he has built up his reputation as a successful physician and surgeon and has made himself a factor in the community. He has his offices in the State Bank Building and is also owner of his residence on West Street. Doctor Cabeen is a member of the Butler County Medical Society, the State Medical Society and the American Medical Association, is examiner for a number of life insurance companies, is on the United States Pension Board for Butler County, and every year is adding to his capabilities for thorough service in his chosen profession. In politics he is a democrat. For two terms he has been a member of the Leon City Council, is now president of the board of education, and is township committeeman of the Democratic Central Committee. In 1914 he was a candidate for the Legislature. ...
